

New York Times Best-Selling Author
Michael Tougias

at Opacum Land Trust Dinner September 20th

Tickets on sale now at OpacumDinner.BrownPaperTickets.com

Bringing together his research and experience as an outdoorsman, historian and writer, Tougias will talk about the rich history that has shaped our region - first focusing on the bloodiest war fought on North American soil – King Philip’s War – which devastated the colonial and Native American communities of our region, and then one of the greatest fresh water supply systems in the world – the Quabbin Reservoir which dramatically transformed the central Massachusetts landscape.

Tougias

is an award-winning author and co-author of 24 books.

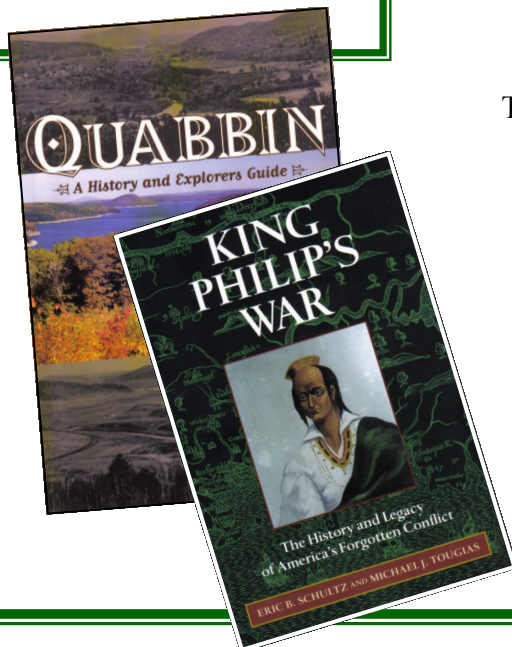

He is best known for
The Finest Hours,

which became a major motion picture by Disney in 2016.

There’s A Porcupine In My Outhouse: Misadventures of a Mountain Man Wanna-be.

chronicles his misadventures at his remote cabin in Vermont in his award-winning book.

A very funny read!
